

Adapting for Survival Zoo Activities

Adaptations for Feeding

In the Africa exhibits observe the animals and then list animals with each of these adaptations for movement.

Adaptation for Feeding	Animals with this adaptation
Digging tusks
Pecking beak
Grinding teeth
Tearing teeth
Crunching teeth
Reaching neck
Digging or grabbing claws
Nose like a hand and straw
Prehensile lips

Adaptations for Camouflage

In the Jungle and/or the Amphibians and Reptiles Building

Find an animal that uses a pattern for camouflage

Name of animal _____ Description of pattern _____

Description of habitat _____

Find an animal that uses a solid color for camouflage

Name of animal _____ Color _____

Description of habitat _____

Find an animal that uses body shape for camouflage

Name of animal _____ Body shape _____

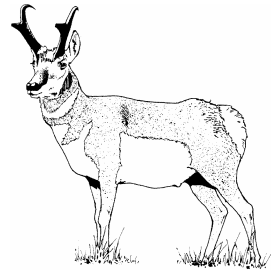

Description of habitat _____

Adaptations for Defense

Unscramble the North America animals and then match them with how they defend themselves.

- curopnpei _____
- kel _____
- tanrtalkees _____
- gornrophn _____
- repiari gosd _____
- zirzgyl _____

- speed
- rattle
- appearing larger
- quills
- antlers
- escape

Adaptations for Movement

Observe the animals in the Australia and South America exhibits then list animals with these adaptations for movement. (All animals may not be out at all times.)

Adaptation for movement

Animals with this adaptation

Webbed feet
Jumping legs
Wading legs
Grasping toes
Climbing claws
Feathered wings
Walking legs

ADAPTATIONS FOR COMMUNICATION

List 4 animals and the ways that you saw them communicating
