

Who Am I ?

As you visit the North American exhibit fill in the blanks when you find these mystery animals.

1. Our large claws help us to dig and rip open logs. Our fur is brown.

We are _____ .

2. I hold my tail high and run when danger is near. I may have antlers.

I am a _____
_____.

3. I love to swim and play. My thick coat helps keep me warm and dry in the water.

I am a _____.

4. I shake my tail as a warning. My colors help me to blend into my home.

I am a _____ .

5. My white head gave me my name. I use my strong feet to catch a fish.

I am a .

6. My stiff hair protects me from enemies. I love to climb trees and eat bark.

I am a _____.

7. I am the leader of a pack. I howl to talk to other members.

I am a _____ .

8. Some people call me a buffalo, but that's not my real name. I shed my shaggy fur in the summer.

I am a _____ _____ .

9. I use my claws and teeth to grab my dinner. My coat is light brown.

I am a _____ _____ .

10. I live in a town. My home is in tunnels underground.

I am a _____ .

Bonus:

Use the letters in the boxes to solve this mystery.
Prairies can be found in

4 9 7 1 5 8

